

Meridian Bank Card Fraud Policy v1

Purpose: define minimum controls for identifying and responding to suspected card fraud.

High-risk indicators include unfamiliar devices, unusual geography, rapid repeat spending and failed authentication.

An investigator must preserve transaction, authentication and device evidence before closing a case.

Confirmed fraud must be recorded against the original transaction after customer or network confirmation.